Turn horses out in a good pasture for a few weeks, when they get in bad condition. If that can not be done use Dr. Cady's Condition Powders; they will put a horse in perfect health. A well horse does not need medicine. Hay, grain and good care is better. Dr. Cady's Condition Powders are a true horse medicine, (not a dope), they aid digestion, cure constipation, kidney disorders and distillery worms. Sold by A. L. Shadler, Druggist.

A Washington Man in Luck.
"There is no incident in all my life," said Mr. R. C. Palmer, of 731 8th street, N. W., Washington City, "that looks so much like providential assistance as the one which will send me to Dayton, Ohio, today. I had arranged to start in the furniture business, the necessary money, but was disappointed. I've been in the habit of investing a dollar a month in The Louisiana State Lottery, and the drawing of the 14th ult. brought me just exactly the sum I needed. If this assistance had not come to me I might have been a working mechanic all my life.—Washington (D. C.) Star, June 4.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

Among the recent arrivals on the COURIER'S exchange table is a copy of the Stratigraph, containing a gossip article about a gentleman well known in Lincoln, particularly in social circles. It is Prof. Jacob Mahler, whose dancing classes were the correct thing in years past. The professor spends his summers at Saratoga, where he acts as master of ceremonies at Congress Hall and corals the new dances to be imported into the west for the succeeding winter season. He is one of the youngest of the professionals who go to Saratoga as a terpsichorean Mecca. In a talk with a reporter he said: "I learned to dance soon after I was able to walk. My instructor was my father, who came to this country from France in 1836 with the famous ballet master, Esplanos, as a female impersonator. In 1839 he removed to St. Louis, where he established Mahler's dancing academy. For fifty years it has been known throughout the state simply as 'Mahler's,' and in that city it is a household name. Last year I had nearly seven hundred pupils. It has been one ambition of my life to own a school of my own, constructed upon the best principles. I have made a careful study of the leading dancing schools of this country and have already begun the construction of a three-story building at St. Louis. It will be terra cotta, brick and red stone. On the first floor will be located a banquet hall, with a seating capacity of four hundred. One flight of stairs leads to the dancing hall. Here will also be found the reception room, ladies' and gentlemen's dressing rooms, reading room, gallery and private office. The third floor will be my residence. The building will be completed in September, and will cost $16,000 without the furniture, which will augment its value at least $8,000. There is nothing like it west of New York and I expect large revenues from rentals. I first came to Saratoga in 1878, when Mr. Clement opened Congress Hall. My experience here has been most valuable, as I have familiarized myself with newer methods and gained an insight into eastern life. The 'Wishing Well' was the first children's play given in Saratoga. I presented it in 1882, following it each succeeding year with an original production. There is an immense amount of detail in showing the little people how to sing, act and dance. I am now arranging a children's carnival to be given July 30, in the Congress Hall, ball room. Among the novelties will be 'The Dairy-Maid's Drill,' 'The Minuet,' 'The March of the Oobahs' and 'The Mule Fling.' The latter is unique and will prove decidedly amusing. The mule is now in process of manufacture in New York."

The private dining room of the Capital hotel was the scene of a select but memorable banquet Thursday evening. The spread was given by Mr. E. T. Horne of Fremont, superintendent of the South Platte Division of the Elkhorn, in honor of several officials of the Northwestern lines, who were making a tour of the system. The party included C. H. Knapp, first assistant general freight agent of the Chicago & Northwestern, Chicago; K. C. Morehouse, first assistant general freight agent of the Fremont, Elkhorn & Missouri Valley; T. E. Rattle, commercial agent of the Chicago & Northwestern, Chicago, and H. B. Ritchie, general agent of the Northwestern, Omaha. They were accompanied by W. S. Hallock of Sioux City, W. D. Gates of Chicago, and ex-Senator Sherrin of Fremont, and the host invited in the following Lincoln gentlemen: Judge O. P. Mason, Auditor T. H. Benton, Hon. E. P. Roggen, J. A. Buckstaff, St. Alexander, John McManis, A. B. Hayes, Benj. Cowdrey, W. Dorgan, Jas. F. Pershing and H. M. Levitt. The Capital set out one of its best spreads, a rich and varied feast, and the good things were discussed with a relish. Mr. Knapp made a little speech and gave the Lincoln guests the impression that the Elkhorn contemplates an extension from this city. Judge Mason responded with one of his characteristic efforts. The banquet was one of the juiciest spreads ever given in the Capital City. Mr. Knowitall says it came near using up two hundred-dollar Williams, but the other Williams, Toms, Bens, etc., seem none the worse for wear.

On Sunday morning last the Globe contained a notice to the effect that the Pleasant Hour Juniors had dissolved partnership and that the cause seemed to be on account of some quarrel or disagreement of its members. It has come to the ear of a "never sleep" COURIER reporter, however, that this is not the true cause. The only reason for their reorganization is that a thorough canvass of the city will have to be made in order to obtain the names of some more lady members, as no less than six of its present members will be obliged to enter the ranks of sly Cupid's society ere the Pleasant Hour Juniors hold their first party of the season of '89 and '90. September 3d the first one of the lady members will be asked if she intends to "love, honor and obey," and if the fair one answers in the affirmative she will be installed into one of the sweetest little homes in the city. "All things come to him (or her) who waits," and though the last one to join Hymen's band, her bosom friend and for years her constant companion will make the same promise to one of our best and noblest boys, and begin life over with a change of name. Now of course nothing would give the COURIER more pleasure than to give its readers the names of the fair ones and also the lucky gents who will claim their hands, but as we are bound by a fearful oath not to divulge either we leave the conundrum for you to guess.

Mr. Harry S. Lippincott and Miss Ardella Alger are the latest of Lincoln's best known and well liked young people to join the ranks of the married. Mr. Lippincott has been for years one of the Journal's worthiest salesmen, while the bride is a sister of Mr. Chas. Alger, also of the Journal. The ceremony was celebrated at the home of the bride, 1331 J street, Thursday evening at 8 p. m., by the Rev. John Hewitt. The wedding was strictly private, no one attending but the immediate relatives of the bride and groom. Immediately after the ceremony the happy couple took the Flyer for Denver, Manitou, Salt Lake and the west, where they will spend several weeks.

The home of Major Kluesch, at Eighteenth and N, was the scene of a delightful lawn social and evening party on Tuesday evening, being the occasion of a birthday party tendered by him to his daughter, Miss Katie. The young folks revelled under the trees until the cool of the evening, when all took to the house and indulged in the merry dance until the "wee sma' hours." The guests present were Misses Florence Winger, Lillie Seacrest, Grace Oakley, Maud Oakley, Estelle Curtis, Lou Johnston, Lucy Griffith, Eva Howard, Bertha Lansing, May and Rose Lillibridge, and Messrs. George Gadd, Ray Leese, Eddie Cousal, Mattie Baldwin, Fred Woodward, Rose Curtis, Harry Grupe, Earl Kelley, Hugh Kelley.

Mrs. G. W. Blake, of South Lincoln, was tendered a delightful surprise party Thursday evening, at her home. It was her birthday and about twenty couples dropped in to remind her of the fact. It seemed as though they all came loaded, too, as the large amount of presents would testify. Among the best was an upright piano from her husband and son, Walter, a fine antique oak bedroom set and a host of other good things that will make the occasion one long to be remembered.

A pleasant party was held at Maud Harper's on D street last evening. After enjoying the usual fun and good times these parties afford, the following guests departed for their homes: Misses Mollie Helwig, Hattie Becker, Nellie Hyde, Lou Canfield, Clara Alford. Messrs. Will Ryons, Ray Becker, Geo. Freil, Foss Seacrest, Walter Blake and Chas. Wackerhagen.

The young people of the Second Presbyterian church will give an ice-berg social on Monday evening, August 6th, at the grove on Twenty-seventh and O streets, to which a general invitation is extended. Excellent vocal and instrumental music will be rendered during the evening.

The young ladies of the First Christian church will give an out-door entertainment at the grove, on the corner of Twenty-seventh and O streets, Tuesday evening.

The ladies of Grace M. E. church held a very pleasant social at the church parlors on Wednesday evening.

Frank Zehrung didn't get back from Colorado until Monday. He reports a large number of Lincoln people up among the mountains.

Misses Sada and Lulu Gruninger went to Omaha Sunday for a short visit.

Mrs. P. V. M. Raymond is at Dell Rapids, Dakota, and will visit Iowa friends before returning several weeks hence.

Mrs. A. S. Raymond has been entertaining her aunt, Mrs. Lamson of Hannibal, Mo., and daughters.

D. G. Courtney and family have gone to St. Paul, Minn. The doughty fisherman will run up to Lake Oakes, buy that hotel and keep it on tap for the Isaac Waltons of Lincoln.

W. W. Russell of Minneapolis, the guest of Joe Imhoff, left last Saturday for home.

Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Beeson left Monday to join the Lincoln colony at Dixon, Ill. C. C. Burr returned with them.

Mrs. J. H. Mockett, Jr., has been entertaining Misses Ada Jones and Grace Macaulay of Omaha.

Miss Minnie Mateer has gone to Davenport, Iowa, for a visit of several weeks.

Miss Clarke Pace and her friend, Miss Effie Jackson of Atchison, went to Greenwood to take leading parts in an entertainment given Thursday and Friday evenings.

L. C. Dunn left Tuesday for his tour of Europe, going first to the Paris exposition.

Mr. Tindale, a distinguished member of the Booth and Barrett dramatic company, was the honored guest of Mr. A. B. Cherrier at 1727 P street, during his sojourn in Lincoln.

J. L. Johnson of St. Paul, Neb., was a visitor in the city Thursday and Friday.

S. J. Alexander and family of the Farmers' and Merchants' insurance company are now located in their new residence on east N street.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Babcock are enjoying a few days' visit in Ord and North Loup.

Mrs. F. W. Baldwin has gone to Manitou for the heated term.

Miss Cora Hardy is visiting in Minneapolis. Miss Eliza Everett left Monday for New York, going thence to Syria.

If you want to give your friends at a distance a good impression of Lincoln send them the COURIER.

Dr. J. R. Richards and party returned on Sunday from their trip to the northwest. They boarded the boat for Alaska, but were compelled to return on account of illness.

Fred Nye has been in town again this week and Tom Benton is sorry he came—but just how much he hasn't been able to figure out.

S. J. Alexander's sister, Mrs. Alvira Ross, has come to Lincoln to live.

E. H. Eddy had charge of the music at the First Congregational church last Sunday in the absence of Mrs. Raymond.

Mrs. H. D. Willis is visiting at Frankville, Wis.

Miss Maud Coleman is visiting at Long Pine.

Mr. A. B. Cherrier, of the Cherrier Directory and Publishing company, has, we understand, taken his first naturalization papers. We are pleased to learn of this step, and tender Mr. Cherrier our congratulations on his patriotism and good sense.

It was the extreme pleasure of the COURIER man to meet Miss Emma Curtis and Miss Vida Burgert, of Nebraska City, yesterday. Both young ladies are vivacious and interesting talkers and are making lots of friends during their stay in this city. They were accompanied by Mr. Will Wesner also of Nebraska City.

Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Tiffany of Albion, Neb., were in the city Friday as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Darnall.

Misses Mary and Jennie Smith are among the Lincolinites now rusticated at Colorado Springs.

Mrs. Mary A. Reed left Thursday for her old home in Ohio. She will spend some two or three months at Middleton, that state.

Miss Lulu Crocker, after spending some time in Lincoln and forming lots of pleasant acquaintances, returned to Kansas City last Saturday.

Little Willie Duncan, treasurer of the Museum Co., left Thursday afternoon for Waukegan, Wis., where he hopes to find his wife. Manager Lawler is also "batching it" until he can get away, when he thinks he will find Mrs. L. at Lake Minnetonka, where they will spend the summer.

John Doolittle is entertaining Miss Lucia A. Rogers of Omaha. Miss Rogers was a former teacher of music at the University here.

Mr. Fred Hallett is spending a couple of weeks at Ottumwa, Iowa. He left for there Saturday last and writes home that he is having a huge time.

Mr. John Schmittle and family leave this evening for Salt Lake, Denver, and Manitou. The trip will take them a couple of weeks.

Miss Edith Leighton will spend the summer in Colorado Springs. She left for there last Thursday evening.

Mr. C. W. Mosher, accompanied by his family, took a run out to Denver.

Mr. I. Brucks is entertaining his niece, Miss Jennie Oppenheimer of Louisville, Ky.

Mrs. H. Crocker has been taken dangerously ill at 1006 E street, the residence of her father-in-law, J. H. Crocker.

Col. Loeb, with Semmons, the clothing man, with brush in his hand and some paint in a pan, was lettering the windows of their elegant store, and remarking that prices were down to the floor, saw a dude from the COURIER crossing the street and approaching him in a fever heat, exclaimed: "Tell all the people in this man's town to read our ad. this week and then come down to our store on O street without delay and hear my great speech in which I say, 'Good people, we're here without a doubt the finest gents' furnishings ever brought out from New York City to Nebraska wild, in sizes and shapes for man or child.' Here the newspaper man awoke with a scream and found it was all an advertising scheme.

The best place in the city of Lincoln to get good board is at Brown's cafe. You have a great variety to select from and the prices are reasonable.

Patronize the Elkhorn's new Chicago train. Fastest time on record. Through sleeper.

It will pay you to purchase one of those fine white emboldered suits of Foreman & Crowe and put it away 'till next summer if you don't need it now. You can get one at your own price.

Telephone at the COURIER office is 253.
